GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Why is there a Notice?

A federal court authorized this notice because you have a constitutional right to know about the proposed settlement of this class action lawsuit and all of your rights and options under the proposed settlement. This notice explains this class action lawsuit, the Settlement, and your legal rights under and related to the Settlement.

2. What is the name of this lawsuit, who is the judge presiding over it, and who are the plaintiffs and defendants?

This class action lawsuit is known as Friske v. Bonnier Corporation, 16-cv-12799-DML-EAS (E.D. Mich.). The District Judge presiding over this case is the Honorable David M. Lawson, and the Magistrate Judge presiding over this case is the Honorable Elizabeth A. Stafford. The named plaintiff and class representative in this lawsuit is Rebecca Friske. The defendant in this lawsuit is Bonnier Corporation.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

This class action lawsuit alleges that Bonnier violated Michigan's Video Rental Privacy Act, M.C.L. § 445.1712 ("VRPA") by disclosing subscriber information related to customers' magazine subscriptions to third-parties without permission. Bonnier maintains it did not violate the VRPA.

4. What is a class action?

A class action is a lawsuit where one or more people, called the named plaintiff(s) or class representative(s) (here, Rebecca Friske), sue on behalf of all people who have similar claims and have been allegedly harmed by similar conduct. Once a class is certified, all people who have similar claims to the class representative(s) are members of the class and are bound by any settlement or judgment in the case, except for those class members who exclude themselves by opting-out.

5. Why is there a Settlement?

Both the named plaintiff/class representative, Rebecca Friske, and the defendant, Bonnier, agreed to settle this case. The Court has not decided the case in favor of either side. By agreeing to the Settlement, the costs, time and uncertainty associated with trial have been avoided and the Class Members will receive the benefits described herein. The named plaintiff and her attorneys believe the Settlement is in the best interests of all affected.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT

1. Who is included in the Settlement?

Only Class Members are included in the Settlement.

2. Who is a Class Member?

A Class Member is defined as any Michigan resident who, at any time from July 28, 2010 through [DATE OF PRELIMINARY APPROVAL], received one or more subscriptions to any Bonnier publication and who did not purchase such subscription(s) through a third-party subscription agent.

A third-party subscription agent means an entity other than Bonnier that sells Bonnier-published magazines to subscribers and then remits nothing or some of the proceeds from sale to Bonnier.

Furthermore, Bonnier publications include: [INSERT LIST OF PUBLICATIONS].

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS

1. What does the Settlement provide?

Class Members can submit a claim form and choose to receive either: (1) a monetary payment of approximately $16, or (2) a free, one-year subscription to any Bonnier magazine. If Class Members do not submit a claim form and make a selection, they will receive a voucher or purchase code for a free, one-year subscription to a Bonnier magazine.

The Settlement also provides for certain privacy protections. Bonnier will maintain opt-out notices on its magazines so that subscribers are aware that they can choose to opt-out of personal information disclosures before or after they subscribe to Bonnier publications.

2. What will the amount of the monetary payment be?

The exact amount of the monetary payment option available to each Class Member is unknown at this time. Bonnier has established a settlement fund totaling $3,000,000.00. Portions of the settlement fund will be used to pay for: (1) this Notice to Class Members, (2) the costs to administer the Settlement, (3) Class Counsel's attorneys' fees and costs, and (4) an incentive award to the named plaintiff/class representative. After those costs have been deducted from the settlement fund, the remaining balance will be divided by the total number of Class Members to establish the exact monetary payment available to each Class Member. Based on previous experience, Class Counsel believes the monetary payment option will be approximately $16.

3. How do I get my monetary payment or my free subscription?

To receive your monetary payment or free subscription, you must submit a complete Claim Form through [WEBSITE] by [CLAIMS DEADLINE]. The Claim Form must have all requested information completed accurately, and you must elect to receive either a monetary payment of approximately $16, or a free, one-year subscription to any Bonnier magazine. If you do not timely submit a completed claim form, you will automatically receive a voucher or purchase code for a free, one-year subscription to any Bonnier magazine.

4. When will I get my monetary payment or my free subscription?

If you choose to receive the monetary payment, you will receive your payment approximately sixty (60) days after the Settlement is finally approved by the Court and any appeal affirming the Settlement has concluded. If you choose to receive a free subscription, your choice will be sent to Bonnier (60) days after the Settlement is finally approved by the Court and any appeal affirming the Settlement has concluded. If you do not submit a claim form, your name will be sent to Bonnier (60) days after the Settlement is finally approved by the Court and any appeal affirming the Settlement has concluded. Bonnier will then send you a voucher or purchase code thirty (30) days thereafter.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

1. What is the purpose of excluding yourself from the Settlement or Opting-out?

If you do not want to receive benefits from the Settlement, but instead want to protect your right to sue or to continue to sue Bonnier individually, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement by opting-out.

2. How do I exclude myself from or “opt-out” of the Settlement?

To exclude yourself from or “opt-out” of the Settlement you must send a letter that includes the following information:

- a. Your name and address;
- b. The name of the Bonnier publication to which you subscribe or subscribed;
- c. A statement that you wish to be excluded from or “opt-out” of the Settlement of this case, the name of which is Friske v. Bonnier Corporation, 16-cv-12799-DML-EAS (E.D. Mich.); and
- d. Your signature.

You must mail the letter, postmarked no later than [OPT-OUT/OBJECTION DEADLINE] to:

ADDRESS WHERE OPT-OUTS MUST BE MAILED

3. What happens if I exclude myself from or “opt-out” of the Settlement?

You will not receive anything from the Settlement and will have no rights or obligations under the Settlement Agreement. You also will be able to bring suit against Bonnier should you so choose.

4. What happens if I do not exclude myself from or “opt-out” of the Settlement?

You will receive a voucher or purchase code for a free, one-year subscription to a Bonnier magazine, and you will be bound by the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Most importantly, you will release any claims regarding the legal issues covered by the Settlement (defined as the “Released Claims” in the Settlement Agreement). The Settlement Agreement is available at: [WEBSITE]. This means that you will give up your right to sue Bonnier for any claims the Settlement resolves. If you wish to pursue your own lawsuit against Bonnier for any of these claims, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by opting-out.

THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING YOU

1. Do I have an attorney in this case?

The Court has appointed the following lawyers (“Class Counsel”) to represent you and others in the Class:

Gary Lynch
Carlson Lynch Sweet Kilpela & Carpenter, LLP
1133 Penn Avenue, 5th Floor
Pittsburgh, PA 15222
glynch@carlsonlynch.com
bcarlson@carlsonlynch.com

Daniel Myers
Law Offices of Daniel O. Myers
818 Red Drive, Suite 210
Traverse City, MI 49684
dmyers@domlawoffice.com

If you want to be represented by another lawyer, you may hire an attorney at your own expense.

2. How is Class Counsel paid?

You will not be charged for Class Counsel representing you. Class Counsel intends to request up to 30% of the $3,000,000 settlement fund for attorneys’ fees and costs in prosecuting this case. The fees and expenses are awarded by the Court, and the Court will determine the amount of fees and expenses to award. Class Counsel also will request up to $5,000 as an incentive award to Rebecca Friske for her efforts in serving as the named plaintiff/class representative in this action. Any payment of attorneys’ fees and costs and the incentive award must be approved by the Court and will be deducted from the $3,000,000 settlement fund.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

1. What is the purpose of objecting to the Settlement?

If you do not agree with or like the Settlement, you can tell the Court about your disagreement or dissatisfaction by objecting.

2. How do I object to the Settlement?

If you are included in the Settlement, you can object to any part of the Settlement, the Settlement as a whole, Class Counsel's request for fees and expenses, and/or Class Counsel's request for an incentive award to the named plaintiff/class representative.

To object you must submit a letter that includes the following:

- a. The name of the case, which is Friske v. Bonnier Corporation, 16-cv-12799-DML-EAS (E.D. Mich.);
- b. your name and address;
- c. an explanation of the basis upon which you claim to be a Class Member or included in the Settlement, including the Bonnier publication(s) to which you subscribe;
- d. all grounds for objection, including citation to all legal authority and factual evidence supporting objection;
- e. name and contact information of any and all attorneys representing, advising, or assisting you in any way with respect to your objection;
- f. whether you intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing, either personally or through representation; and
- g. a statement identifying each case, by full case caption, where you or the attorney representing you has objected to any class settlement and asked for or received any payment in exchange for dismissal of the objection, or any related appeal, without modification to the class settlement.

You must file and serve your objection, no later than [OPT-OUT/OBJECTION DEADLINE]. The objection must be filed with the Court at:

Theodore Levin U.S. Courthouse
231 W. Lafayette Boulevard, Room 718
Detroit, MI 448226

The objection also must be served on the following parties:

Gary F. Lynch
CARLSON LYNCH SWEET KILPELA &
CARPENTER, LLP
1133 Penn Avenue, 5th Floor
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Daniel Tramel Stabile
SHUTTS & BOWEN LLP
200 S. Biscayne Blvd.
Suite 4100
Miami, Florida 33131

3. The difference between objecting and excluding yourself by opting-out?

Objecting is telling the Court you do not like something about the Settlement. You can object to the Settlement only if you do not exclude yourself by opting-out of the Settlement. Excluding yourself from or “opting-out” of the Settlement is telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement. If you exclude yourself or “opt-out” from the Settlement, you have no basis to object to the Settlement because it no longer affects you.

THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

1. What is the Final Approval Hearing?

The Final Approval Hearing is a hearing held by the Court. At the hearing, the Court will consider whether the Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, and whether or not to approve the Settlement. The Court will also consider any request for attorneys' fees and expenses and the request for an incentive award to the named plaintiff/class representative. You may attend and ask to speak, but are not required to do so. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the Settlement. Class Counsel does not know how long the Court's decision will take.

2. When and where will the Court hold the Final Approval Hearing?

The Final Approval Hearing will be held at [TIME] on [DATE], at [LOCATION]. The hearing may be moved to a different date or time without additional notice, so you should check [WEBSITE] regularly for updates.

3. Do I have to come to the Final Approval Hearing?

You are not required to attend the hearing. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may come to the hearing at your own expense. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to the Court to speak or testify about your objection. So long as you submitted your objection on time, to the proper addresses, and with all the required information set forth above, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend the hearing, but you are not required to do so.

4. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must send a letter stating that you intend to appear and wish to be heard. Your Notice of Intention to Appear must include the following:

- Your name and address;

- Copies of any papers, exhibits, or other evidence or information you will present at the Final Approval Hearing or that has been presented to the Court; and

EXHIBIT 2

Notice of Class Action

Friske v. Bonnier Corporation, No. 16-cv-12799-DML-EAS (E.D. Mich)

A class action lawsuit was filed against Bonnier Corporation based on the disclosure of certain subscriber information to third-parties. This lawsuit is pending in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. A settlement has been reached between the parties.

Are you included in the class? You are a member of the class if you were a Michigan resident who received a subscription to a magazine published by Bonnier between June 28, 2010 and [DATE OF PRELIMINARY APPROVAL], provided that your subscription was purchased directly from Bonnier.

What is this lawsuit about? This class action lawsuit alleges that Bonnier violated Michigan's Video Rental Privacy Act, M.C.L. § 445.1712 (the "VRPA"), by disclosing subscriber information related to customers' magazines subscriptions to third-parties without permission. Bonnier maintains that it did not violate the VRPA.

Who represents you? Gary Lynch and Bruce Carlson of Carlson Lynch Sweet Kilpela & Carpenter, LLP and Daniel Myers of Law Offices of Daniel O. Myers, who have been appointed by the Court. They will ask the Court for fees and costs, which will be awarded from the settlement fund. If you want to be represented by another lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

What are your options? If you do nothing, you are choosing to stay in the Settlement Class. You will be legally bound by all orders of the Court, and you won't be able to sue Bonnier for claims related to the claims made in this lawsuit. If you wish to make a claim, you may do so by visiting [WEBSITE], where you may electronically submit a Claim Form. If you are a member of the Settlement Class, you are eligible to receive: (i) a monetary payment of approximately $16 (the exact amount is unknown at this time), or (ii) a free, one-year subscription to a Bonnier magazine. To be excluded, you must opt-out of the Settlement by [OPT-OUT/OBJECTION DEADLINE]. Specific instructions about how to opt-out are available at [WEBSITE]. If you opt-out, you will not be bound by any of the Court's decisions and you will keep your right to sue Bonnier, but you will not receive the benefits of the settlement. If you disagree with or are dissatisfied with the settlement, you may object by filing and serving a written objection by [OPT-OUT/OBJECTION DEADLINE]. Specific instructions about how to object are available at [WEBSITE]. Please visit [WEBSITE] for additional information regarding the settlement.
